

Children of All Ages wanted for: CLOSING EVENT for Family Story Time program

At the Jackson Learning Center & Historical Society (aka – the Library)
The LIBRARY is located in the Jackson municipal complex on Rt. 7 behind the Town Office and Fire Station.

August 12th at 10 AM

Jo Jo Thoreau will read from her new book:

Buckaroo Bobbie Sue

WALDO COUNTY YOUNG AUTHOR....

6th grader from Mt. View School in Thorndike, Lydia Schofield, (pen name Jo Jo Thoreau) will be reading her recently published children's book, "Buckaroo Bobbie Sue," at the Jackson Learning Center & Historical Society (aka the Library) during Family Story Time on August 12th at 10 am.

Schofield's children's books inspire children of all ages.

Schofield has been traveling with her mother all over Maine, presenting "Bendy Wendy" and "Buckaroo Bobbie Sue" at schools and libraries.

Schofield will be the Grand Finale event for the summer Family Story Time program at the Library on August 12th at 10am. Children of all ages are welcome.

For more info about Family Story Time or to volunteer, please call Louise at 722-3445.

The Family Story Time program runs every Friday at 10am from: July 8th – August 12th.

SEE YOU AT THE LIBRARY!